As I told you, re: Waacs, their position was that this section was innacurate and not a realistic picture. So far as the accuracy is concerned, I have gone grade block!

over this with the proper officer, and everything down to the beginning of the section on "Kinds of Work," at the bottom of page 6, is accurate as changed. From there on, however, they dont approve. However, before going into that, they would prefer that you omit the section marked with a question mark on p.2. Also, there is a bill that passed both Houses and awaits Presidential signature that will change all WAAC salaries to coincide with rmy pay. It will be law in a matter of days, and you should watch the Times for it. Now here is the stuff of "Kinds of Work". It is not individual work, and Auxiliaries dont join to be individuals or do individual work. They are not and will not be used individually. They will be doing the work in which their platoons are
