OFFICE OF THE EXECUTIVE EDITOR

Dear Harold:

I don't quite understand the objection to the second half of the WAAC chapter. I'm attaching the circular sent to us by the War Department from which our material was taken. Frankly, it looks to me somewhat unfair to withhold approval in this circumstance. Certainly, any changes since the time this circular came out could easily have been incorporated, without all this waste of time. I wish you would take up with the officer in question the enclosed circular, and ask him just how does it jibe with what you told me. Obviously, women want to know precisely this kind of information. Phone me Monday after you speak to the officer, for I am loathe to make these changes unless absolutely necessary.

Best,
