

313 H. St., nw
Washington, D.C.
November 16, 1942

Dear Max,

Last August 15, when there had been some ~~deal~~^{deal} in paying me, I wrote ^{you} that in the future it would be understood in advance that I was to be paid within the week following billing. Consequently, I am at a loss to understand why I haven't had a check or even heard from you since last month.

I submitted my first bill on the 24th of last month, and on the 28th. I billed you for the balance. The total is $47.76.

Under our agreement I should have been paid for the first bill by the 31st and for the second bill by the 7th at the latest.

I wrote you on the 8th. about this and you haven't even answered.

As you know, Max, I don't like this kind of business. Please cut the horsing around and pay me right away.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg