Dear Harold:

Here are some ramblings from an editor. I'm thinking out loud, so think along with me.

I read that Henderson may be out.

Today I picked up a copy of Collier's and found that the lead article is a story by Wickard entitled WHY WE'LL HAVE ENOUGH TO EAT. It tells why Americans won't starve, rationing or no rationing.

Somebody said that LaFolette was a member of the America First Committee when the Committee was in existence. How does that affect us? Frances Borden just remarked that it doesn't matter what he did but what he is doing today that counts; further, he has a good record. What do you think?

Keep me posted and get the lead and other articles as quickly as possible. It's getting hot and I don't want to worry.

With best wishes.

Very sincerely,

Al
