Washington, D. C.

Dear Harold:

I just got back from a little vacation, with a beautiful sunburn. Outside of that, I'm feeling fine. I received the O.K.'d proofs on McNutt.

I haven't as yet received the Morgenthau story, but most likely it will be in the mail tomorrow or the day after. I still think that an interview with Litvinoff answering a bunch of questions would be a corker for the lead article for the third issue.

Cognizance should be taken of the fact that Japan and Russia will be fighting by the time the third issue hits the stands on October 15th.

Hoping everything else is coming along satisfactorily. Will write tomorrow with reference to the army articles as well Arch Mercer.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely,

PICTURE SCOOP
