Mr. Harold Weisberg

Washington, D. C.

Dear Harold:

In order to let you know how little Congressman Coffee thinks of you, I am enclosing a copy of a letter from him.

Incidentally, I received the glad news about the prostitution article. You've done a fine job.

I am enclosing herewith a check for the sum of $102.84. In your past letter you sent us a bill for $32.84 which included the flop on the generals. To this sum I added $75 to cover your work on Business with Russia and the Army steeplechase stories. I realize that the amount is not entirely adequate, but we'll make it up to you.

I haven't yet included the sum for the lobster dinner. However, that will go to you on the next trip.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Al Whyman
