Washington, D. C.

Dear Harold:

I agree with you about the girl guerrilla story. She has received plenty of publicity. The yarn on the lieutenant sounds very interesting, but I should like to know exactly what the guy can say before you go ahead.

I received the manuscript on prostitution. The material is good, but written in terribly pedantic fashion and will have to be reworded for this medium. However, as you suggested, I shall see Goldman to get the anecdotes, and I can fix the article up accordingly.

The expense account you sent in has been taken care of by Frances, and you will receive a check to cover the money on Friday or Saturday.

The copy on the tank-tester yarn just came in and I haven't had a chance to go over it as yet. However, I will and I'll write you about it tomorrow.

Incidentally, we just got our advance copies of PICTURE SCOOP (November issue), and I am sending you five herewith. I'll send you about 20 more tomorrow, and if you need any more, just let me know. I'm not sending a copy of this second issue to Chuck Schwartz because I think it would be just as well if you took care of him, and you can also take care of anyone else whom you think important.

Incidentally, something should be done with our symposium on WHAT SHOULD WE DO WITH HITLER AFTER THE WAR and I'd be greatly appreciative of anything you can do.

About the CAN WE DO BUSINESS WITH RUSSIA AFTER THE WAR: I am trying to get hold of Davies, but it is beginning to seem to me that the symposium is a little one-sided. All participants feel definitely that we can do business with the Soviet Union. Now, it would be lousy to get people to state that we can't do business, yet unless we do, we won't have a well-rounded consensus of opinion. I want to think about this a little more and I'll discuss it with you when I see you the latter part of this week. At that time also I'll make an adjustment on the fee.

Is there any dope on Maloney? How about Wallace? Are the tank-tester pictures coming?

I'll use the story though
