Dear Gardener Weisberg:

Being chief cook, bottle-washer, and chief dispenser of the family checks, I am pleased indeed to pay you for the posies you so kindly forwarded to Betty Gilmer.

Though I shall never see them, I'm sure you did a good job, artistically, and I want to say thanks, again, for Alex and myself.

Do come up north and give our fair town a break. We'd love to lure you to the wilds of Kew Gardens.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Helen
