Norris Calls Hoover
'Publicity Hound'

Senator George W. Norris (I.) of Nebraska, yesterday branded chief G-man J. Edgar Hoover as "the greatest hound for publicity on the American continent," and warned that constitutional liberties and privileges will be destroyed unless a "rein" is put on the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The accusation came as the veteran liberal renewed his attacks on the FBI for its handling of 12 persons arrested in Detroit and Milwaukee last winter in connection with the alleged illegal recruiting of Americans in the Spanish Loyalist
