

1/9/93

Mr. Weisberg

I too have been studying the events of 22 November, 1963 for the best part of 30 years; at least since I read your first book, "Whitewash" and "Rush to Judgment" by Mark Lane. The research done on the assassination of President Kennedy is probably outweighed only by the Civil War and WWII.

I would like to believe that in my lifetime, the truth

of this matter will
see the light of day,
but I have serious
doubts. Any truly
revealing information
that the CIA or FBI
may have one time
held on this matter
has probably long since been shredded or
destroyed, so the
current clamor to
get all documents
held by the government, and any promises
to do so, will in
the end be futile
and fruitless.

However, as long as people like yourself, and the long roll of many others upon whom I am sure you are far more familiar with than myself, continue to press on providing the public at large with whatever information you are able to glean or uncover, there is hope that we may one day know the true facts of this matter once and for all.

For all the money

that has been spent
by our government
on the Warren Commission, which is now widely held to
be a sham and its
subsequent report
a phenomenal work
of fiction; the House Assassinations Committee
and its floundering,
you would think
that something of
consequence would come of it. The sad
reality is that it
has not. It is only through your

efforts and the efforts
of your fellow researchers that any truthful
resolution has been ever attempted. For your work and unending
efforts in this endeavor, I, as an American citizen, would like to
profoundly thank you.
One day, perhaps not
in your lifetime nor
mine, the true facts
will become common knowledge. Your name will be revered
as one of the leading,
if not the pre-eminent

beacons of light which brought us from
the darkness of that November afternoon
so long ago.

I, myself, am but
an amateur when compared to you and your co-laborers. It is generally only through the extensive reading
of someone else's research that I do that I
further my own personal
quest for the truth,
which brings us to the

H

reason I am taking up your time with
this letter.

A recent fire destroyed
all of the books I once possessed on this subject I am currently in the process of trying to find as many of the important ones as is possible.

Your works are indispensable
but hopefully not
irreplaceable, since
much of your work
is self-published...

Enclosed you will
find a self-addressed,
stamped envelope for

your convenience.
If you could provide
me with any information or how I might
re-acquire the following books, your help
would be most appreciated. Thank you again for your diligent research and any information you can provide.

Sincerely,
Michael J. Lee
