Dear Mr. Weisberg;

First of all, let me thank you for all the time, effort and financial resources you have put into your one-man project the past 28 years. I respect you for having the foresight to recognize the need at a time when most people were caught up in the emotions of the event.

I am a history teacher at Dublin High School, a suburb of Columbus. I just turned 16 when John Kennedy was assassinated. I have read most of the Warren Commission Report (when it first came out), books by Mark Lane (Push to Judgment), Robert Groden (High Treason), David Lifton (Best Evidence), David Scheim (Contract on America), Jim Garrison (On the Trail of the Assassins), Mark North (Act of Treason), Jane again (Plausible Denial) and Craig Zirbel (The Texas Connection). I have also read separate books on Jack Ruby (Who was Jack Ruby?) and the Oswalds (Maura and Lee), and have seen Stone's movie, of course, and heard Jack Gordon's 3-hour audio-visual presentation. I have been to the archives as recently as August and November of 1991.
