Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I am writing to you for several reasons, each of them driven by my long-standing interest in the JFK assassination.

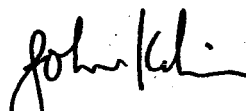

I am wondering if you are still selling copies of your Whitewash series, and if so, how I might go about obtaining several of the titles. These books are not easy to locate: I found a copy of the Dell paperback of the first Whitewash in a used bookstore about a year ago, and found a copy of Canyon's Oswald In New Orelans through a book search service.

What I would like to find now are copies of Whitewash II: The FBI-Secret Service Cover-Up, and Photographic Whitewash. I saw an order form in a copy of one of your self-published books, but surely these are no longer five dollars. Do you have a list of available titles, with current prices? I would very much appreciate whatever information you can send me. I am:

I do not want this to sound like a fan letter, but I would also like to express my admiration for you and your work on the Kennedy case. It is plain that your research over many years was conducted against quite formidable obstacles. It's a cliché to say it, but the Kennedy assassination was the defining event of my life; I am most grateful that you and a very small group of researchers insisted on the truth—even if we haven't yet discovered precisely what that truth is.

Respectfully yours,

John Kelin
