There are no obstacles, only hurdles of varying heights. None of them is so great that it can not be overcome, gotten around, or gone under. Even mountains disintegrate with time.

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I've been consuming literature about the Kennedy coup for about 10 years and have read most of the recent releases about it, including your Case Open and Posner's obscure little thing. I am dumbstruck by the degree to which Americans have become an ignorant, complacent and vulnerable people. Your voice is deserving of so much greater attention than the din that surrounds us; I just hope you'll continue your efforts to have truth prevail. Thanks so much for your efforts to date. We used to have a chance; maybe someday our country will be "a contender" again.

Best wishes,

Steven Kossor
