Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Thank you for your quick response to my letter. Enclosed you will find a money order in the amount of $76.95 for one each of the books listed on the order form. I can hardly wait to receive them. If it is not too much trouble, I would really appreciate it if you would autograph each and every one of them. And, again if it is not too much trouble, I would love for you to write a short inscription in at least one of the books. I will leave that part up to you.

I was 11 years old when the President was assassinated, and although I have always had an interest in the assassination and the surrounding events, I suppose I was one of the typical Americans who had just accepted the fact that the Warren Commission had done its job and that's all there was to it. The movie JFK certainly changed all of that. Although I am not yet sure how well the events were accurately depicted in the movie, I will always be grateful to Oliver Stone for reminding the American public of this most tragic of events. At any rate, once I saw the movie, I began to collect every book and video that I could find about the assassination. I was first exposed to you while viewing one of those videos. Since that time, I have been looking for one of the original copies of Whitewash, but so far I have not been able to locate one. If I ever do, you will probably receive it in the mail with another request for autograph.

I received a letter from a good friend and fellow researcher, Dave Hall of Munising, Michigan, who explained that he had just received a letter from you. In it, he explained that you and Dr. Cyril Wecht are good friends. I was flipping through the channels about 3 weeks ago and saw Dr. Wecht being interviewed, but when I turned up the volume, I was surprised (and somewhat disappointed) to see that he was being questioned not about the evidence concerning the assassination, but about possible evidence in the O.J. Simpson case. I know that Dr. Wecht is recognized as a leader in his field by his peers, and I'm glad to see him get an opportunity to establish his credibility with the general public through this exposure. In my opinion, that's the only good thing that will come out of this tragic case.

If you should find yourself swamped with work and not enough bodies to get the job done, please accept my offer to help in any way that I can. I don't know much about the publishing business or about writing in general, but if you need someone to type up part of a manuscript, or transcribe from a tape, or even stuff and mail out envelopes, please don't hesitate to call on me. It would be an honor to help further the cause of truth. My phone number is listed below.

Thank you again for answering my letter in such a timely manner. I am really looking forward to receiving these books.
