

I think of you both every day and you are always in my prayers.
I hope the following holiday season finds you both as well as is possible, considering.....

I was disappointed you could not answer my last letter, but I understand.

My own health has worsened, leaving me with a new heart problem. So I don't get out much anymore except to the doctor. My daughter picked out this card for me because of the verse. She knew exactly what I wanted to say to you.

I would like to send you a holiday card in December, but not knowing whether you celebrate Hanukkah or Christmas, I do not wish to offend you. So I'll simply say, Happy Holidays.

I am writing this on the 30th Anniversary. It is impossible for me to accept the fact that it was 30 years ago. Because it is as vivid in my memory as if it

Thinking of you at Thanksgiving
In a warm and affectionate way,
And wishing you
all the blessings
Of a beautiful, bountiful day!

were just last week. I have been taping all the specials T.V. is running and I saw you, Mr. Weisberg, being interviewed on one. That one I'll keep. (Some of them, such as Alan Rother's on C.B.S., are a bunch of hogwash + I tape over them.)

My best to both of you. affectionately, Cynthia Wilson
