Mr. Walter H. Morse, General Counsel
Selective Service System
1724 E St., NW, Room 603A
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Morse,

It was good of you to see me on the 15th of last month when I had no prior appointment, and it was good to know that you recall so much so clearly.

Afterward, by coincidence, my wife noticed the announcement of the appearance of the Marshalls on TV and recalled her conversation with Mrs. Marshall, which reflected your concern about what had happened.

You said you would speak to Mr. Mash and thereafter would be in touch with me about this and our getting together again at a time convenient for you. I presume that in the press of business this escaped your attention. I would like to meet with Mr. Mash, as I would like to see you again.

If it is possible on such short notice, I will be in Washington this coming Friday, the 29th, for a medical appointment not far from your office. I should be free about noon. Perhaps if you have a few moments then... Or later.

I will also be in Washington Tuesday. If there is time I'll phone to see if you, Mr. Mash or both will be available and if not, when you might be. We will be home Wednesday afternoon and all day Thursday, should you desire to phone.

We do appreciate your taking the time and your willingness to help.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
