SYNOPSIS

REVISION

Copies of letters written by Lee Harvey Oswald that were in the possession of the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, are attached. Salient parts are abstracted for this report.

DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION

Incidental to protective assignment of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, SA Gary Seale was allowed to examine various documents belonging to Mrs. Marguerite Oswald.

Other Investigations

Copies of three letters written to Mrs. Marguerite Oswald from Lee Harvey Oswald sent from Russia are quoted in part below:

Letter #1 dated October 22, 1959 — "You needn't worry about my losing American citizenship I can only do that if I want too, and I don't want too." ... "Marina, unfortunately, doesn't speak any English at all, I would like her to learn, and I've bought some books for her on the subject but for now she doesn't want to learn..."

Letter #2 dated March 21, believed to have been posted in 1962, reads in part: "They seemed to write a lot about me in the paper's, Robert talked too much, but I'm glad to see you supported me in your own way." "I had written a letter to the Secretary of the Navy in Jan. 1962 I got a reply yesterday from some General telling me about the reversal of my honourable discharge into an undesirable one. We should be in the States in May at the latest the Embassy has agreed to loan me $500.00 for the trip, and also they accepted my own affidavit of support so your's

Dear Mother,

Well as you can see we still have not gotten off yet. The holdup is from the Embassy which is apparently trying to get us money from other nurses than itself for our tickets to the U.S.
 probably they'll approach you for money again. Don't pay any attention to them.
 Jane is getting things already in the mail. I don't think she'll care. I don't expect to like her.

Who is Mr. Phillips?
 Does he work at a new place now? Do you still have contact with him?
