DETAILS

SYNOPSIS

English translation of Russian notations on a slip of paper found among effects of Lee Harvey Oswald in New Orleans were made and are relatively unimportant to the case.

DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION

Reference is made to O/M of Inspector Kelley, dated December 19, 1963, requesting that a translation be made of the Russian notations found on a slip of paper among Lee Oswald's effects by SAIC Rice in New Orleans, La.

Translation of notations apparently indicate the telephone numbers of a Russian government office, a radio factory, a hotel, telephone numbers of co-workers, the telephone number of Leo Setner - Radio Moscow, and telephone numbers of the United Press and an undecipherable press. On the reverse side of the slip were apparently the telephone number of Marina's place of work, numbers of American and Russian documents or permits, and Russian sizes of men's apparel.

DISPOSITION

Due to Lee Oswald's inadequacy in writing Russian some names could not be deciphered or translated, but it appears that all the notations are relatively unimportant to the case.

The matter is considered closed at Los Angeles with the submission of this report.
