Garrison Subpoenas Helms to Testify on the C.I.A

By MARTIN WALDRON Special to The New York Times

NEW ORLEANS, May 10 District Attorney Jim Garrison today subpoenaed Richard Helms, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, to answer questions before a New Orleans grand jury next week about a C.I.A. investigation of the assasination of President Kennedv.

The subpoena, signed by State District Judge Bernard J. Bagert, ordered Mr. Helms to appear next Wednesday. It also directed him to produce a photograph taken by C.I.A. agents in front of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City in October, 1963, about seven weeks before the President was shot.

Mr. Garrison, who has said he has evidence that Lee Harvey Oswald was an undercover agent of the C.I.A., declared that a photograph alleged to show Oswald in front of the Cuban Embassy was a "fake" produced by the C.I.A. to avoid having to identify one of its
