F.B.I. AGENT BALKS GARRISON INQUIRY

Invokes Executive Privilege Before Jurors on Plot

NEW ORLEANS, May 17 (AP)—An agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation refused today to answer questions from a grand jury about his role in the investigation of President Kennedy's assassination.

The agent, Regis Kennedy, invoked executive privilege during the hour-long appearance before the grand jury, accord-ing to District Attorney Jim Garrison.

Assistant United States Attorney Jack Ciolino said Mr. Kennedy had been ordered by Attorney General Ramsey Clark not to answer questions.

Alvin Oser, one of Mr. Garrison's aides, said the agent was then dismissed from the ber translates into Ruby's 1963 subpoena.

Mr. Kennedy left the grand jury room as he had enteredsmiling.

after Criminal District Judge Bernard Bagert ruled this morning that the Justice Department lacked authority to prevent its agents from testific.

Judge the number of a postoffice box he rented in the summer of 1966. Recalling a trip to New Orleans last November, Mr. His appearance was ordered prevent its agents from testifying before the grand jury.

said a Justice Department executive order forbade F.B.I. suggested Mr. Shaw, so the agents to disclose information about their official work uncless the Attorney General approximately approximately suggested Mr. Shaw, so the manager called him. He [Shaw] came over to the hotel, as recall, and we talked for 15 of the control of the con by the courts and not by arbi-rever communicated again. That's all there was to it." Federal agencies.

Explanation for "Code"

DALLAS Tex., May 17—A "code" that New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison says connects Clay Shaw with Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby in an assassination conspiracy may be nothing more than the postoffice hox number spiracy may be nothing more than the postoffice box number of a bullfight promoter, The Dallas Times Herald said in a copyrighted article today.

It reported that Lee Odon, a 31-year-old promoter, says he is the "Lee Odom, Post Office Box 19106, Dallas, Tex.," that Mr. Garrison cited from Mr. Shaw's address book.

Mr. Shaw, 54, a retired New Orleans businessman, has been indicted on a conspiracy charge and is awaiting trial.

Using a complex decoding system, Mr. Garrison has said the Dallas postoffice box num-notebook. Mr. Odom said "19106" was Dallas telephone number — WHitehall 1-5601. The number

"19106" was found in Oswald's

Odom said: "I asked the manager of the Roosevelt Hotel in New Or-Mr. Kennedy, who is based in Roosevelt Hotel in New O'New Orleans, was subpoenaed leans about who would be last week. Federal attorneys good man to see about findin proved.

In ruling for the state, Judge
Bagert said the question of privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined fight didn't come off and we related to the distribution of the privilege must be determined for the privilege must be determined fo N.Y.T 5-18-67