JUDGE IN SHAW CASE

temptuous" disregard of court ment, Judge Haggerty issued guidelines on pretrial publicity a list of guidelines that forbade and am keeping a full file on all violations of the orders issued by this court."

Judge Haggerty declined to answer questions after reading his statement, in which he said:

tional Broadcasting Company temptuous of the court's orders. CAUTIONS NEWSMEN ical of District Attorney Jim Garrison's case against Mr. Ghard and retired by Street Attorney By Street By television program that was crit- Persons including lawyers have guidelines on pretrial publicity a list of guidelines that forbade in the presidential conspiracy court attaches, lawyers, witcase against Clay L. Shaw.

Judge Edward Haggerty of Criminal District Court called newsmen into his office and ny statements concerning any issued a brief statement in evidence either for or against which he warned: "I have kept and am keeping a full file on all Judge Haggerty declined to Judge Haggerty's statement "The conduct of some persons followed by two days a Na- has been deplorable and con-

NEW ORLEANS, June 21 Shaw, a 54-year-old retired bus-said that after Mr. Shaw's trial inessman accused of conspiiracy he would determine if anyone cused unnamed individuals today of "deplorable and con-following Mr. Shaw's indictive for violations of his guidelines."