Lawyers Seek Data Release

sive and indefinite." Kennedy death plot charges against him as "ghostly, evalawyers today attacked the Shaw's defense fense attorneys in support of The attack was made in legal memoranda filed by de-> case against the defendant. Shaw, a 54-year-old retired erty and force the district atpress evidence against Shaw, gain the return of seized propthree motions seeking to suptorney's office to lay bare its

New Orleans businessman, is awaiting trial.

DEFENSE LAWYERS have ber of 1963 to murder President John F. Kennedy at Dallas. He is free on $10,000 bond charged by DA Jim Garrison's office with plotting in Septem-filed a series of motions at-tacking the validity of the state's case. Fifteen days ago, Judge Edward A. Haggerty gave the defense until today of its pleadings. Defense counsel Salvatore > three detailed briefs. Panzeca met the deadline with seize five boxes of personal right to search Shaw's French Quarter home March 1 and belongings and papers. that the DA's men had no the documents The defense contended in filed today mation upon which the Shaw In support of its pleadings for a full disclosure of inforwas not seized in connection with a valid arrest," the defense declared. HIT. EVIDENCE seized to a charge of conspiracy are fense declared: "Among the only defenses See SHAW_ Dama 10 indictment was based, the de-

Shaw--

Continued from Front Page

did not take place, and that fendant was not there. if they did take place the dethat meetings and agreements with which the defendant is presently faced." such a ghostly, evasive and tance. Counsel for defendant stances, the defense of alibi bly be utilized in the face of defense or alibi could possiare at a loss to see how a indefinite charge as the one becomes of paramount impor-"Under these circum-state until July 14 to file an answer to the new memoranda. Judge Haggerty gave the