Kohn Charges Gremillion, McKeithen 'Shirked Duty'

The managing director of the Metropolitan Crime Comnission today charged that lov, John J. McKeithen and tty. Gen. Jack Gremillion ave refused to acknowledge eir authority and responsility to intervene in DA Jim arrison's plot probe. Aaron Kohn, speaking at e Press Club of New Orans, said serious public algations have been made that imes have been committed Garrison's office in the rsuit of his assassination instigation.

HE SAID THE state Contution and the new crimi-I code specifically provide attorney general with the wer to intervene in all suits, her civil or criminal, or to stitute suits or investigans, and give wide supersory powers over state DAs. Further, he said, the goverr can demand that the atrney general take action in ny case in which he thinks he public interest is in dan-

KOHN SAID THE allegaions made against Garrison's

See KOHN- Page 4

N.O. S-I 7-3-67

Kohn--

Continued from Front Page

office include conspiracy, attempted bribery or intimidation, inciting felonies, intimidation of officers, aggravated kidnaping, false imprisonment, criminal defamation and criminal mischief.

Kohn said the MCC is asking, step by step, those in authority to "exercise their

He said that the last resort for taking action can be accomplished through the public, which with 25 names, can petition the commencement of removal action through the district courts.