Ex-Reporter Held; Philadelphia Files Blackmail Charges

PHILADELPHIA, July 5 (AP) tified as Danny Silverman. -A former newspaper reporter, the head of a local public rela- bribes occurred from 1962 to tions firm and a third man were 1966. charged tonight with blackmail, District Attorney Arlen Specter his home while warrants were announced.

Karafin, who was dismissed said. several months ago from his job as a reporter for The Philadelphia Inquirer, and Joseph Ball, head of the public relations firm, were charged in two instances of alleged blackmail totaling $66,000.

Joseph Kane, who was not identified, and Mr. Karafin were accused in an alleged $5,700 bribery, and all three man were charged with blackmail, unlawful solicitation and conspiracy, Mr. Specter said.

In all instances, the district attorney said, Mr. Karafin al-legedly bribed the victims by threatening to have either favorable or unfavorable stories published in the Inquirer.

Mr. Karafin was also charged with attempting to solicit $90,-000 from several city constables.

The warrant issued by Mr. Specter's office charged Mr. Karafin and Mr. Ball with ill legally soliciting $52,000 from John Reilley Sr., vice president of the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Company, and $14,000 from Jack Alter, president of the Teachers Service Organization of Philadelphia. It also charged Mr. Karafin and Mr. Kane with soliciting $5,700 from a local businessman iden-

Mr. Specter said the alleged

Mr. Karafin was arrested at issued for the arrest of Mr. Mr. Specter said that Harry Ball and Mr. Kane, Mr. Specter