

10/24/50
New York Times

Dies today said that if the State and Justice Departments did not "proceed without further delay to prosecute the Communist Party, the German American Bund and all organizations controlled by the Communist Party in violation of the registration law" he would immediately present the "conclusive" evidence to the district attorney.