

5

10/24/30
New York Sun

J. Farnell Thomas in an interview at his Allendale, New Jersey, home, said that the Federal Government was most than lax in failing to use "beautiful evidence" on which to convict persons for violation of the income tax, espionage, and registration of foreign agents acts. He also said that he intended to recommend a plank for the Republican platform for making the Dies Committee a permanent body.