FURTHER REPORT ON MARTIN DIES 1107/3/142

11 77 ...

Martin Dies is trying, so far with some apparent success, to make the people of the United States pay his personal bills. Mr. Dies was sued for $75,000 for libel by a man he smeared, not in an official report, but in a letter to the Vice-President. The libel was so clear that Dies settled for court costs of $611. Then he got his committee to ask the Accounts Committee to pay the bill. The Accounts Committee has agreed. And there it stands, unless there's enough hullabaloo about this dipping into public funds to pay the bills incurred by Dies for his personal pleasures that something is done about it in the House .

This raises the whole question: if Dies had fought the libel suit and lost, would the public be forced by the Accounts Committee to pay the whole $75,000 damages plus further enormous court costs? Incidentally, if Dies could be sucd for all the lies contained in his reports, by the people he lies about, the amount would be in millions. unfortwhately, he is immune from prosecution for libels contained in official reports.

In the first two weeks of July, 65 editorials on Dies appeared in Additional 400 daily papers surveyed. Of these, 23 supported Dies, 37 wereon Dies Editorials against him, and five wore noutral commont. And we have a total previous report (see Legislative Letter # 26) and we have a total previous report (June 25), in the three weeks following issuance of Dies' latest official report (June 25), of 24 editorials supporting him, 67 opposing him, and five merely commenting in more or less neutral fashion. It's evident the realities of war are loosening Dies! defoatist grip on the press.

Now that the Department of Justice is acting against the domestic fascists (most of the 28 persons indicted, and of the many organizztions and publications named, last week, are among Dies' most enthusiastic supporters) the fight to end his influence altogethor should be brought to a head. Have you written to your local newspaper and to your own Congressman yet, pointing out the similarity between Dies' activities and those of the 28 domestic fascists
