RED-BAITING CAMOUFLAGES NAZI PROPAGANDA

Within twelve hours after the Commu-Nazi divorce, Nazis in America had determined upon a new line of strategy. During the short-lived marriage, Bundists and their followers were greatly handicapped, since anti-Communist slogans and arguments were temporarily taboo as an offset to America's growing determination to aid Britain. Now that Hitler's Panzer Divisions are invading Russia, all Nazi propaganda material of anti-Communist context, used before 1939, has been dragged out from dusty bins. America-Nazis and native Quislings alike leaped into the fray with gusto. They lost no time.

On Sunday morning, June 22, a strategy meeting was held at the Los Angeles German House, attended by Nazi bigwigs of Southern California. It was unanimously decided to revive the old, so-called "Anti-Communist Federation of America". Under that camouflaged name, a conclave was held at the Los Angeles German House in August, 1938. Its declared purpose was to fight Communism, but actually, it was a convention of Nazis and their sympathizers, arranged by leading subversivists, under the guidance of agents whose direct connections with the German Propaganda Ministry have been repeatedly exposed by NRS. Handbills (reproduction on page 2), announcing the affair, were liberally scattered about

Los Angeles. When the convention got under way, a crowd of curiosity-seekers gathered outside the meeting place. Among them were many Communist pickets who carried posters bearing well-chosen pro-Democracy slogans, and who created such a disturbance that a near-riot ensued (illustration at left).

However, such demonstrations died the moment the Berlin-Moscow Pact was signed. The plans discussed at this convention, anti-democratic in all respects, are now to be revived. Sugar-coated National Socialism will again be dished out to Americans as the only antidote for Bolshevism.

The Nazis have once more been instructed to concentrate particularly on gaining converts among conservative and religious groups, especially those which in the past had taken a militant, anti-Communist stand. They are to be subjected to a constant propa-

Downfall of Russia

An address by Captain Victor de Kayville
Delivered in Chicago, Ill., April, 1934.

Mr. Chairman,

Ladies and gentlemen:

I am scheduled tonight to speak to you on a Russian subject. I take it for granted that all of you are tired of that topic as for the last few years this country has been flooded with newspaper articles, speeches, discussions and Radio talks on that subject, nevertheless there remains a world of facts, never mentioned to you by newspapers, Radio or public speeches, of which you are kept in ignorance, on purpose, by a supreme world power, the existence of which you scarcely perceive. These facts are of tremendous importance to you, to your children and would have been to your parents and grand-parents if they had known them at the right time.

For instance, a common conception of the American public is, that the Russian Revolution was made by the Russian people, however there is ample evidence on hand proving beyond any doubt to a person of average intelligence that, although the Russian people supplied the manual force for it, the revolution itself was prepared, engineered, executed and controlled not by Russians at all, but by Jews.

As bold as this statement may seem to you, you can't help but believe it after you go through the carloads of evi-

Meetings of this organization will be temporarily suspended and all members are asked to stand with the America First Committee, "to save this country, its Constitution, resources, wealth and manhood from being dissipated and dissolved."

This is in accord with suggestion in Social Justice Magazine: "Let all groups as well as all individuals who support the America First Committee submerge, momentarily at least, their motivating objective to the one grand objective of keeping this country out of war. No other interest should engage our common mind."

Listen to Lindbergh, Wheeler, Norris, Clark, Nye and other America First leaders. Meeting every Thursday at 3142 Wilshire Blvd.

A VOICE RESOUNDS LIKE THUNDER-PEAL

By

John L. Riemer

A voice resounds like thunder-peal.
Like crash of wave and clang of steel,
From Bering Strait to Panama:
Who will defend America?
America, be undismayed!
Thy sons will rally to thy aid.
America, be undismayed!
Thy sons will rally to thy aid.

A million lips repeat the word,
A million fists unsheath the sword,
To guard our Country's soil and shore,
The precious heritage of yore,
Our fathers bought with blood and skill
At Valley Forge and Bunker Hill.
Our fathers bought with blood and skill
At Valley Forge and Bunker Hill.

We pledge our troth; we shall not yield
To any foe the battle-field—
We shall protect the sacred sod,
'pon which the Pilgrim Fathers trod;
And if it be our lot to die—
We'll meet our fate with flags on high.
And if it be our lot to die—
We'll meet our fate with flags on high.

COMMUNISM WITH THE MASK OFF

By

DR. JOSEPH GOEBBELS

SPEECH DELIVERED IN NÜRNBERG
ON SEPTEMBER 13th 1935
AT THE SEVENTH NATIONAL SOCIALIST PARTY CONGRESS

"There is no longer any political question at issue here. This thing cannot be judged or estimated by political rules or principles. It is iniquity under a political mask. It is not something to be brought before the bar of world history but rather something that has to be dealt with by the judicial administration of each country."

ganda barrage, repeating over and over again that Adolf Hitler and his New Europe are fighting a holy war against godless, Bolshevist Russia. Propaganda bullets to be used in this barrage (reproductions on pages 2 and 3) are "The Red Network" by Elizabeth Dilling, handbook of all subversivists for many years; reprints of speeches by Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels, dealing with Bolshevism; pamphlets like "Germany's Fight for Western Civilization"; and countless brochures printed in German, such as Das bolschewistische Russland (Bolshevist Russia).

At the Sunday morning German House meeting, it was decided to revive another old technique. Stormtroopers will again be ordered to the German House after midnight, where they will be given propaganda literature with instructions to put them into mail boxes in the dark of night. They will be coached to use as alibi -- if caught -- that "we are good, patriotic Americans. We are anti-Communist". Of course, they are not expected to admit to being German-American Bund Stormtroopers.

Monday morning, anti-Communist literature began appearing from the National Book Mart, 1625 Fifth Avenue, Los Angeles, establishment of John L. Riemer. Among these was included "Downfall of Russia" (reproduction on page 2). Nazi determination to take on the protective coloration of the America First Committee was convincingly demonstrated, for on the envelope containing Riemer's book was a "memorial" seal (reproduction on page 2), issued by America First, of which the Nazis have secured large quantities.

Riemer is an old timer in the Nazi propaganda game. In 1934, he organized the "American Labor Party". Its printed program (reproduction on page 3) presented a "solution" for all party ills -- from the Nazi point of view. Questioning of Riemer by the McCormack Committee, August 1, 1934, revealed that his party platform bore a striking resemblance to the 25-point program of the Nazi party, and that the printing bill of $215 was paid by check issued by Dr. Georg Gyssling, Los Angeles German Consul (until June 28th). Riemer and Paul Themnitz, a German army officer assigned to work with him, designed uniforms for the "Lode Star Legion" (an adjunct of the party), prepared manuals for military drills, and had prospective members state in their application blanks the extent of their military experience. Great stress was laid on marksmanship. Typical was a pledge contained in the membership application which read: "I will not desert the post of duty in the hour of danger". In recent months, Riemer has been most fertile in ideas on how the America First Committee activities should be implemented.

Until now, one of the main fighting planks of the America First Committee was the degree of America's aid to Britain. Now, the issue of No-Aid-to-Britain is being soft-pedalled. Instead, in their meetings last week, spokesmen for the Committee repeated ad nauseam, "No American mother wants her boy to die on the battlefields of Soviet Russia". NRS has reports from many cities in the United States, that this is the new line of approach adopted by America First haranguers everywhere.

All indications point clearly to the fact that Americans will be swamped with a more outspoken brand of pro-Nazi propaganda, designed to capitalize on America's traditional hatred of the doctrines of Communistic dictatorship, in the hope that the tenets of Nazi dictatorship will prove to be less intolerable, and to foster the misconception that we must accept one or the other. Behind the Wheelers, the Lindberghs and their fellow travelers will be a horde of Nazi agents and sympathizers who will not be shaken loose, and who will do their best to confuse American thinking by exploiting the Bolshevik bogey.

As one of the Nazi strategy group wisecracked last Sunday morning: "Americans are suckers. They will let their best break break them".
