Hitler's Kampf Against Christianity

"The individual may realize with pain that with the appearance of Christianity there came into the much freer world of the ancients the first instance of spiritual terrorism. He cannot, however, dispute the fact that thenceforth the world has been oppressed and dominated by this force, that force is broken only by force, and terrorism only by terrorism. Only by building up on these methods can a new condition of affairs be brought about.

"A world theory animated by devilish intolerance can be broken only by a new conception impelled by a similar spirit and fought for with an equally strong will, but a conception that is pure and sincere."

"Mein Kampf" (German edition Page 184)

While paganism is fostered in Germany, the Reich government propagandistically exploits and guides religious groups in foreign countries in furthering the Nazi cause.

Clergymen in America, especially in the Midwest, are deluged with propaganda literature, constantly stressing two points: (1) that the conscience of a Christian minister must compel him to advocate peace; and (2) that the master of the "New Order in Europe" is fighting to preserve Christianity.

Vorwort

„Wer Weltgeschichte verstehen will, muß die wahren Geschichte-gestalter und ihre Mittel kennen. Es sind das meist nicht die poli-tischen Regierungen und ihre diplomatischen Noten, sondern es sind, wie in früheren Jahrhunderten, namentlich der römische Papst und der Jesuitengeneral, d. h. „Rom“ und die „Katholische Aktion“, die zur vollen Unterwerfung aller Staaten und Völker unter römische Gewalt führen sollen.

Das Nachfolgende ist ein Teilausschnitt aus der Katholischen Aktion in Rußland und Japan. Es zeigt, wie Rom weltumspannende Politik macht. Jeder Fortschritt Roms, wo immer er eintritt, ist aber ein Nagel zum Sarge Deutscher Freiheit und darum von entscheidender Bedeutung für das Deutsche Abwehrringen gegen Rom.

These are usually followed up with arguments designed to lead the minister, step by step, from advocacy of peace, to appeasement, thence to active opposition to the president's policy of all-out-aid to the powers fighting Nazi aggression.

Foreword to one of Ludendorff's books, "Vatican and Kremlin". The late general said: "He who wants to understand world history must know the true makers of history and their methods. In most cases they are not the political governments and their diplomatic notes, but they are, as in former centuries, the Roman Pope and the Jesuit General, i.e., "Rome" and the "Catholic Action". They are to lead to the complete subjugation of all states and peoples by Roman power. --- In the following appears a cross-cut of Catholic action in Russia and Japan. All progress of Rome, no matter where it is made, is a nail in the coffin of German freedom and, therefore, of decisive importance in Germany's defense fight against Rome." Below are typical front covers of two Ludendorff books: "The Secret of the Jesuit Power and its End" and "The Priest's Rope --- Satirical Poems from the Middle Ages to Present Times".

Great efforts have been made, especially by the now closed German Library of Information, to convince Americans that Christian religious practices remain unhampered in Germany. This bait was swallowed by many gullibles, outstanding examples being Charles E. Coughlin and Gerald B. Winrod.

The German government continuously asserted -- and many people believe -- that "National Socialism was not for export". But now the world has learned differently. The same applies to the new paganism "Made in Germany". Last week, in his Navy Day address, President Roosevelt said:

Your government has in its possession another document made in Germany by Hitler's government. It is a detailed plan which, for obvious reasons, the Nazis did not wish to publicize just yet, but which they are ready to impose on a dominated world -- if Hitler wins. It is a plan to abolish all existing religions -- Protestant, Catholic, Mohammedan, Hindu, Buddhist and Jewish alike. The property of all churches will be seized by the Reich. The cross and all other symbols of religion are to be forbidden. The clergy are to be forever silenced under penalty of the concentration camps, where even now so many fearless men are being tortured because they placed God above Hitler.

In the place of the churches of our civilization, there is to be set up an international Nazi church -- a church which will be served by orators sent out by the Nazi government. In the place of the bible, the words of "Mein Kampf" will be imposed and enforced as holy writ. And in place of the cross of Christ will be put two symbols -- the swastika and the naked sword.

The god of blood and iron will take the place of the God of love and mercy.

These startling revelations are not new to NRS readers. However, two angles not touched upon by the President should be pointed out: (1) The Nazi pagan cult is assiduously advocated in America by Hitler followers. (2) New Nazi organizations, camouflaged as Christian religious groups, will soon spring up in all parts of the country.

As President Roosevelt predicted in his address, the Reich government and press raged, describing his speech as "the climax of Roosevelt fantasy and the emanation of hallucinations which are as mad as they are absurd". His address was referred to as "a complete swindle and forgery" and "a conglomeration of suspicions, insults, slanders, falsifications, and suppositions which could not by any stretch of the imagination be worse". His charges were called "monstrous assertions" and "the ravings of a lunatic or a criminal".

"Franklin Delano Roosevelt is not crazy; he simply is a political counterfeiter and shameless gangster," Hitler's organ, the Völkischer Beobachter, concluded, after observing that "until now we were not quite certain whether the subterfuges of Roosevelt's policy and his ever-increasing hysterical outpourings of hate against the new Europe could be attributed to psychopathic grounds".

The once respectable Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung said: "The warmonger in the White House spoke foaming at the mouth. His chasing after war has become real running amuck".

The President was assailed as "liar, faker, warmonger, lunatic, hireling of Jewry, and a criminal"; his speech was described as "the product of a sick imagination and an example of shamelessness, rottenness, beastliness and idiocy as never has been foisted on a modern nation".

The Nazi name-calling of the President of the United States is not new, as the illustration on page 6 will prove.

Nazi paganism in America is spread mainly by means of publications such as the literature of the late General Erich Ludendorff (illustration on page 1). John L. Riemer, previously exposed by NRS, is the main supply source for such literature on the West Coast, via his National Book Mart in Los Angeles.

The German-American Bund, though very cautious in this direction, celebrates pagan holidays in the same manner as is done in Germany. In the White Paper of the Dies Committee appears a reproduction of the "Basic

Article in "Das Schwarze

Sense It", on the occasion of Hitler's birthday: "When we heard in school of the hero-worship of ancient times; when we learned that these and other heroes were described as sons of God because no one believed them capable of the deeds they performed because they could not be measured in terms of Human reasoning makes it possible for us to under-preciate Bismarck through appreciation of his tremendous wisdom; we can understand Stein through the beauty of his character.

But when we come to Adolf

Hitler, all these measures are useless. Here we can only sense a hidden Godliness. When his human side shows itself in wondrous manner, we refrain from comparing him with ourselves. Our human brain is not great enough that we can explain to ourselves the being of the man given to us by heaven. Perhaps only a child or a woman has the right to approach him. We men, no matter how high the spiritual level on which we stand, may only know gratefully that he hovers far above us, as something inconceivable. For what is anything, even the keenest fantasy of the poet, against a man who has made the century-old dreams of poets -- a myth of a united people -- a reality!"

Ich kenne Volksgenossen, die Gelegenheit und das große Glück hatten, unseren Führer einmal in der Nähe zu sehen, einzelne sogar ihm die Hand zu drücken. Und wenn ich diese Volksgenossen fragte, was sie dem Führer gesagt hätten, dann lautet die Antwort: „Nichts, das man nicht einfach nicht hätte.“

Sehen Sie, so wild mir gehen, hätte ich das Glück, einmal dem Führer die Hand zu geben.

Alfred G. ... i. Meckling.

The "Berliner Morgenpost" says: "I know racial comrades who have had the great fortune to see our Führer at close proximity. Some of them even shook his hand. When I asked these comrades what they had said to the Führer, I received the reply: 'Nothing; we were not capable of doing this'. That is how I would feel if ever I had the great fortune to see the Führer and to give him my hand."

Instructions for Unit and Branch Directorates of the German-American Bund", describing in detail every function of the Bund, including these very celebrations of pagan holidays.

Hitler in God's Image

President Roosevelt stated that Germany plans to substitute Mein Kampf for the Bible, and enforce it as A Holy Writ. However, few realize how far the Nazi government has succeeded in making the people of Germany look to Adolf Hitler instead of to God. Illustrations in this issue show a few typical examples of how far the Hitler worship has gone.

The Führer's prophet, Dr. Alfred Rosenberg, knows that Christianity constitutes the greatest threat to the survival of National Socialism. Therefore, Christianity must be destroyed! Nazi apologists, however, constantly seek to reassure the world that Adolf Hitler is the Saviour of Christianity. How far these apologists have succeeded in spreading this belief is demonstrated by the utterance of a Los Angeles Nazi who recently testified before the California State Legislative Committee on un-American Activities. He stated: "Hitler has done more for Christianity than any other living individual".

As this issue goes to press, NRS is checking further into reports received recently that a plan is now being worked out by isolationist appeasers and Nazi fellow travelers to set up new groups with well camouflaged fronts appearing as religious enterprises. It is even intended to set up a new church, its main purpose to be not preaching of the gospel but sowing of the seed of doubt into the hearts of the masses bewildered by shocking world events.

The Nazis have advanced far in their technique of using Christianity for camouflage purposes. It becomes evident from the following partial roster of organizations and publications which have come and gone in the past. All of them have used the word "Christian" in their names:

Alfred Rosenberg's book, "Protestant Rome Pilgrims -- Treason Against Luther and the Myth of the 20th Century", was widely circulated in America by Nazi agents. Rosenberg is the high priest and prophet of Nazi paganism.

An examination of the personnel and background of many of these groups clearly indicates that Nazi hate-disseminators now prefer to wrap themselves in the mantle of Jesus instead of the Stars and Stripes, which proved to their sorrow too transparent. The American public will see through this blasphemy as well.

Führer

Wir haben dir einmal geschworen.
 Nun sind wir auf immer dein.
 Wie Bäche im Strome verloren, Münden wir in dich ein.

Auch wenn wir dich einmal nicht fassen
 Werden wir mit dir gehn.
 Einst wirst du uns schauen lassen,
 Was du vor uns gesehn.

Herzen wie erzene Schilde
 Gaben wir um dich gestellt.
 Und es ist uns, als hielte
 Gott durch dich seine Welt.

Gerhard Schumann.

A poem, printed in "Das Schwarze Korps", captioned, "Führer": "Once we have sworn to you, now we are ever yours. As the brook merges into the stream, so we enter into you. Even when we may not understand you, we shall go with you. Some day you will let us see what you have conceived before us. We have surrounded you with hearts like iron shields. And we feel as if God would hold the world through you."

So wie einst in der Jugend der Hebe Gott, erscheint mir nun in meinen Träumen der Führer. In Hunderten von Träumgesprächen haben wir uns schon unterhalten — sonder-barerweise nie über Politik, sondern immer über die alltäglichen, menschlichen, familiären Belange.

Dies: Bild und Text.

Arthur L. Hesselthal.

Under the caption, "Like the Dear God Himself....", "Das Schwarze Korps" said: "The Führer now appears in my dreams like God used to in my youth. In hundreds of discussions we have in my dreams, I talk with him — but wondrously we never talk about politics but always about everyday matters, about human beings and common causes. These nights are festivals."
