

Honey- The purpose of the hurried note is not to chide you for not having written (at least, I haven't received a letter from you) but to show you that I have missed you enough to go out and find a typewriter so that you could read the card. I dont know when you'll get it, but I hope its soon. I mailed you the letter yesterday after saying I was going to hold it to be sure I didn't lose it. How are you? Is there any news? I may be here for a while and I may not, I don't know. Most of the gang I came in with have be shipped, that is, sent to the replacement centers where they will join their permanent organizations. Well, the card is about gone. S'long. Hope you have been dreaming of what I have. Love Harold
