

Harry - I just got your Thursday the letter, early mail. I'm very sorry to hear about your mother. I got one of the boys who were in town to get me a cat which he killed her today.
Before I get into that, please take care of the old time papers (photostat copy of marriage licenses, typed copy of papers) as soon as possible. It may cost my mom some dough. We often have a few minutes before they call us out for the rest of the day. Believe me, the so-called "bunny club" object has disappeared. It is

2) getting things as here. My truck & legs are absolutely dead.

And now, because an officer's ignorance of the fact of an airing before at made the stand, unnecessarily, between 2 opened windows for over an hour, I'm getting a cold. Maybe I'll be able to throw it off.
Best I'm taking it all in stride. I haven't dropped out of my march, did a few waters except the one of which I told you before... My muscle is still here... I wrote you & Johnny a very long letter last night, about 9 or 10 pages.

3) I'm sorry about you being so in the middle. It may come to a settlement some of these days... Please & surprised to hear about Bob, whose complaint, of course, is unresonable.... As I wrote you, I may be able to come & visit your Ma, if it would make her feel any better. Answer my questions on this, please.

... Tell Bob I'm sorry to hear about the ad, ^{not} ~~meats~~ ganging up on her, that he gets over ~~the~~ ^{her} son... Never hear of Al. Wo. b-in-law. ...

4/ I think Eddie should be too, too, if your mother is as sick as she seems from your letters. Maybe he'd want to see her; maybe she'd want to see him.
Otherwise, of course, he should not be. . . .

If I wish this to the P.O. before they have a chance to get us out you'll get it sooner & I'll get a chance to go get my laundry money Regards to everybody
Love [unclear]
