Friday 3/14/43

Honey,

You will soon see why this is the first you've heard of me in 2 days.

I have your letters of Tue. Wed. & Thursday & am returning the clips.

Glad to hear of all 5, but am not happy about the not keeping in news.

I, too, am concerned about Ed. We had no answer to my letter of 3 weeks ago.

Will have to take the news. Co. thing up. We can't let it go at that.

Before I get to today's (Thursday's) letter, notice new address, C. D.
I'll tell you about it if you get this, I think. I don't expect to sleep tonow.

Crapping by this morning.
I've had the of the time I was a "genius!"

As soon as I got the pass I fled to the barracks, swapping my ~~field jacket~~ jacket for the blouse I had, practically, to the bus. I was sweating to begin with, & by the time I caught the bus I was drenched... Got in New York yesterday. Date with Allan & Martha. He is almost finished the book but is in a very bad state of mind re: the Army. O.K.

Spoke to Sid, who recalled I visited with Irving for a while. From the Chases I went to the Hope Son Cafeteria.

It was less pretentious than I expected, but no less entertaining. Its an old cellar, somewhat like the movie set version of Pelecin's cellar - cafes. Coffee & fixings are served free. The center is a dance floor, fronted by a small, makeshift stage. Over there is a juke-box to provide dance music, & so is in case when other entertainment is not offered. A very pleasant M.C. stopped the dancing & announced the show. The boys - ~~of~~ of all services & most allies - "hit the deck" - The floor - for seats.

Then Bert Lytell came out & acted as M.C. for a while. He made a pleasant, light talk with a couple of mounting stories. Then he called in & introduced Billie Burke, who made a very artificial pointed speech before flourishing off. Next came Curran Cobello & part of his orchestra, ~~that~~ who did 3 or 4 numbers. They were followed by a new man, of who I thought very little who is to be the "hit parade" girl" or something like that.

 This is singer. Then came Tibbett, who was very good. ... As you can see that was pleasant entertainment. From the 3 took in the 12 o'clock show

At Cape Society afternoon, & from there I went down town to Cape Society, where I remained until time to catch the 3:50 am train, which I just did catch.

Before I forget, the Golden Gate News Series in a successful song "Hailin Don't Hailin" which I heard.
They have already recorded it for Columbia. Please get it as soon as you can.
You'll like it, & I think you will.

In the way back to his boat met a soldier who, it turned out, was in my company. Suddenly he knew he knew me, I was the guy who had gotten that post from Duke by being home. One of the noncoms had told him about it, feeling that I could have had a visit Monday a.m. Presumably I could have - but I had already promised to work tonight, & I didn't want to be a pig.
Had I known I was going to

to send to C.O. Friday, I'd have been a pig.

Well, the gang is beginning to leave, & I'd have to Rueckhoff.

I got in at 5:30. It was raining so hard they didn't even get out. So was okay even if late. But was a wult!

I had my suit packed a fellow for whom I have done some favoring, ~~the~~ and if it wasn't that I'd have no sleep since 5 am. ~~For~~ yesterday

I take the absence of any serious condition that would be causative to be a good sign. The next will not look you much, & my part, you know, is the most pleasant one I know. Would I could do it more often. All of his orders like the others have something specific in mind & maybe are trying to remedy it. If I stay here I think I'll be able to hold up my end.

As for how about Mr. I hope he starts writing soon.

I'll try & remember the point like this weekend.

as though I should know win. I don't. You'll be the to bea that up.

Or in any case I have to take up a few chores less pleasant than the ones mentioned. When I resume, as I expect to be able to do so, I expect to surprise you by the way I'll feel of what I did yesterday.

Also, before I forget, I have thus far this year spent $52.50 on RR fare, of which some is tax & delivered under income tax.

I was in yesterday at 12:30 & not on again until tomorrow a.m.
(I volunteered for tonight because the man scheduled was shipped).

After eating a busy meal I just felt like having some fun. I determined to hit the top Rick for a press. I was tired & felt that if he refused me I'd go to sleep for a day instead.

I got to the orderly room, his office just as he was informed that 3 jeeps had "forgotten" to make a shipment.
He hit the ceiling & as illegally as properly took them to the speaker for the duration of their stay here. He returned - I was standing quietly in the corner - & called over his name - came together & flushed back out of them for not standing formations. As he left this meeting he saw me & as pleasantly as I could said

 "Hi Sarge?"

"W haddaykwant?" he ~~also~~ flushed

~~and~~ I replied in these offhand words.

"This is my 76th day in this place. I don't want to go

All my still relatives; I have no immediately pressing personal problems. Sir, off duty for a couple of days. How about giving me a pass so I can go out & have a little fun?"

I smiled, but myself, he looked at me, all the time looking more & more as if he might explode.

"Did you say you just want a pass to have some fun?" he demanded. "Honestly, sir, I don't want it for," I said.

"Well I'll be a god damn!" much to me and so & such. "I've been in the Army — years, making a son of a bitch of this since the first time I've heard a Nigger say he wouldn't have a suitcase of war death when he wanted a pass.

"Whodago! Whodago do with it?" he asked. I told him I'd like to go to N.Y. & have a few drinks & take in a few shows.

Still refusing to believe the military millennium had come he told me to go into the subway would see them ~~by~~ said I was to write my own ticket.

Of course, they didn't believe me. I waited for you to come in and ~~then~~ told them that God hadn't all, I was to have a job, & to give me what I wanted. I got it just enough. Meanwhile, he repeated what I had said to all the many noncoms present, some ~~unbelievingly~~ unbelievingly. They & he had the whole set over the
