tions to tell you I'm well warm & concerned only that you'll fret. I hope you won't. This won't be as bad as it could be, t, while it won't be as nice as I thought the Dir, arrangement it won't be impossible. After I get stationed, I should be able to make Wash. in about 16 hrs with a break. And sometimes we'll be able to get together in N.Y.C. There is a great difference between the weather now & last time. It doesn't matter though it will be as rigorous. The train is terribly over-heated, but the air on the train platform is refreshing. I spend my time reading (Southwest Passage) during from the heat, getting fresh air of which the latter is most for. And now I'm going to pick up Chow... Have eaten pretty well & considering... well, Honey, I hope you feel as well as
