5/30/43

Good morning,
Abe.

U. S. ARMY

Sin in the a music room of the USO, with a great pile of writing material & papers before me, listening to the Beethoven 5th & the most unmelodious whistling of a fellow soldier, whose whistling I tolerate because he is changing the words - & because he is enjoying his whistling, & I in not.

It is a muggy day, & I have a feeling of sin as it was, but Sin fairly happy & feel good today. & departed at 6:45, said duty, Ming, to report & rolled over for another 2 hours.
My, I washed, dried, went to the PX for a pint of milk & some Stopping - magazine & something else. I send a P.S. to you.

Please keep it for me. Saw some to Al W., & show you something else. Couldn't get it insured, so I send it just then.

The P.O. is closed Sunday, both on the post & New in town.

The letters that might have not from you, etc.

Now I'll take a little rest & read for a while.

That is my plan for today.

I have just read "No too good exposure" for the first time.
I incline to your point of view. My whistle is reading it for reaction. I think I'll send it to Al W. in case he can use the incident, sometime. If I ever get to where I can use a typewriter, the our going to continue these sketches & group.

2:10

Have written Joe Linn a letter debating the several points & total idea of the underlined part of his letter, enclosed. Wrote the kid 10 pages, in fact.

And wrote Lou Levine &
Al W.

I have ^{been} ~~been~~ who in the music room all his time - & Jim going to stay here was in the Philharmonia, when Jim going to try & locate a radio here on which I can hear that.

I have or has gotten my Bach Concertos at the

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS • THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC COMMUNITY SERVICE
THE SALVATION ARMY • THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS
THE JEWISH WELFARE BOARD • THE NATIONAL TRAVELLERS AID ASSOCIATION

Victrola, which also has made a change, now & he, now a

Radio.

This is really nothing to add, since that has very many & nice too, the humidity is many & I feel it in my sinus. I hope it passes off soon, because this is a nice day &

I'm really enjoying myself with the music, reading & writing.

At least I have something to add a word to

Mail below,

Love
