Sat. a.m.

Had to work too soon, too hard to take to write
you more last night.

It is snowing here again, and the weather, even, is a lot more comfortable than it was on my return yesterday.

The WATC's are here, &
I look for complications before very long. Apparently they are endeavoring to use this place, too!

And now I have to get to work on changing this place up. Don't know anything about a poss.
submit.
