Darling, So far as you are <sup>7/30/45</sup> concerned, the fact of this letter should be enough assurance that I am very much alive, quite happy, & have been enjoying myself. I don't expect to be able to write much for a while, so please remember me to everyone, especially Mom, Johnny, Ella Nora, Alice, Mr. Webb & family, & anyone else to whom I should write. As soon as I know what I can & cannot say I'll write you again. I have missed you much. Love Harold
