Honey -

2/19/43

Your letter of the 15th + 16th came last night. I enclosed the clips I want & the signed box from.

The train that "took me back" was completely unheated, and I was colder than ever because I used my coat as a blanket for a girl who was very old. Tell her of that when I see you, which I hope is tomorrow. I'm not on this morning's shipping list.

You are right about omissions.
However, this is a bit too late to check up on them, so I signed the form. I'll sign the blank one, too, in case you find some mistakes in filling it out, as you may on the first page. I don't know.
May be 100% okay.

Fanny F. is a poor psychologist, at the very least.

Okay about the ~~turning~~ Maybe we fix tomorrow.

Okay re: Army to Singapore.

Re bag: Thanks, but I don't want an expensive one - just one of that dimension.

Well, I'm going to start work. It is starting fine, 8 a.m., and I'll have to work the dance tonight. I'd like to take a nap.

I hope I don't slip tomorrow & start at 7 a.m.

Love
