Dear Dad,

The train was rather late last night, but not as bad as I expected. Got in bed 4 am. Worked this am. & now am at work for the night. Wrote several hours this afternoon but couldn't sleep.

I have been having quite a bit of trouble with my knees & back. So, this afternoon, after receiving the impulse as the time I've been here, I went to see the doctor. He tried to come in person & his send me to orthopaedic clinic. He held little hope out for me, saying treatment was of little or no value.

Q, tomorrow I'll see what what. Perfect O. At best, my surprise will be a pleasant one.
As I ~~stay~~ creep around here, doing nothing worthwhile, I have come to the belief that the only path that will be of any value to me is what I want to do is what I possibly desire want to obtain. I don't know what to do about getting a petition or request or whatever it is called in here, and wouldn't have even gone here, if I weren't having trouble & if it weren't you

The 30th day has been in.

I have learned that I just can't take any physical regimen. But I don't expect to be able to do anything about it.

Well, it's getting busy here and I have to knock off for at least a while. If I get a chance perhaps I'll write you later, if not

By the way, 3 of the boys shipped this a.m. - to a place we all certain is use by. of course, those of us left behind, felt badly about not going.

Letter 31/5/43

Honestly, Sir, if it weren't that I can see the value of a little kindness & consideration to so many of these fellows I think I wouldn't be able to stand it.
But just tonight a Hungarian fellow - a plain little guy with old-fashioned glasses, a mincing walk & rather pretentious - curious to look at, but very nice & very quiet - came up & was most effusive in his thanks for the things I have done for him - so unimportant, I assure you, that I have no recollection of them. Tonight, it happened, I had some knit caps & asked Kevin if he could use one. This pleased him tremendously, as though I were really doing something for him. Oh, well. As to the little things, the things that cost nothing but a smile or a kind word that these boys need. The only thing around here that makes me feel as one good is making them feel good.

Now I've got to quiet some of them who are making too much noise. Goodnight, honey Love
Daddy.
