Honey;

Monday 3/27/43

After getting your letter of Fri-Sat. I have decided to wait until this weekend on the pass & then try & get an extra day added, if I can. Of course, this means I run the risk of losing the pass if I'm shipped.
But it will be hard being with you under the circumstances - and I haven't heard from the major.

I'm glad F got his black shoes.
I believe promises to kids should be kept - and he was overdue on collecting.
Hazel is a treat, but that hasn't been news for years.

Sorry Johnny isn't well. Please say "hello" to her for me, & say I hope this day soon.

O life you ^{live} ~~took~~ is a nice one it sounds like it might be when finished. Do you mean up to it now?

None of Balaban's secretary sounds like maybe something was happening. O life it was good....

That ought to be enough Kleener. Thanks, honey.

Maybe you & the M. D.'s here are right. I know it has always aggravated my troubles to carry a lot of weight around. But Patto know that my weight is not causative, and reducing it will not be curative - though, of course, it should ease the difficulties. I happen to feel fine.

At the same time I'm not happy to think of the possibility that I'm liable to be shipped and have to take regular basic. I don't think I could make it.

From your letter I don't know whether you went up or not - though I take it you did. I hope they are all okay.

I don't even know you had started the ring. Four to a half inches isn't big, but at least you have begun it. What will its shape be? 15 (Dus. Not at all, eh?)

Jesus, I'm glad Bill didn't see your letter. He'd have felt bad & we'd have been right on.

Bill has a garden problem - but it'll get started soon, if the weather is all that holding it up.

Frankie's deductions are interesting, & show his learning how to use his head. It's quite sound reasoning, & correct, except for the failure to make allowances for the way Chhausen works. I can't believe there is no V-mail station in Cosobama.

O to know how the kids do have a liking for us. And it's really of Hoyle to oppose his having a little further in his kev. of all the things to ~~be an~~ oppose the kids.

Your letter to Joe will have to be forwarded. He has moved to a west coast P.O. Some tells me I haven't heard from Joe....

Don't worry about the tags. They'll be there in time. They are only the year plates, small things. And don't worry about the tires. They'll get inspected in time, too.

It just struck me that answering & commenting on a letter makes the reply ~~not~~ very scrappy, so say the best.

Well, I have dashed this off in much haste. Don't gotta get back to work, sad its but a short while before the mail goes out. Oh, sorry, honey.

Love
Dorinda
