

Dear -

Service Club

7/1/43

I feel a strange,
good feeling

U. S. ARMY of exultation as I write this brief note. In writing it to you I have it in my mind that you will write it. I know we may not get together tonight. We are on the alert. I have just returned from Ritz to learn this.

I feel happy about it. It means that we are once again on our way, I presume to staying here. Now I do want to get going.

At the hospital this morning I was sent to a very nice major, who recommended a lot of you as treatment!! He said, when I told him my outfit was going, I would be please hurry up the treatment, that that would be all the treatment for the while, unless it got worse, and he asked to shake my hand.

Said he was glad to meet a man with my attitude!

And now I have to try to see the C.O.

Until tonight—

Love—

Barney
