Dearest,

I'm hopeful a
sailor friend will mail this note & that it will reach you soon.

I am well & so
happy to be back.

While at this moment
still out on land, I have thoughts of little other than seeing you on a furlough. I hope will soon be forth coming.
Actually, I know

nothing. Through This duty has not yet ended, it should be tonight.

So I hope - and long.

May best to everyone, & all
my love to you

Harold
