Harry,

Jim in the hospital here, as Jerry said to be, I am very much the better for it. There is a vast difference, once you are admitted to the hospital, at the moment, it is for a tickle that has just developed, I'm feeling 100% better in every way..... Pursuant to Jerry's instructions I tried to get a Prelman test. Imagine my chagrin to discover that the entire train was made up of observation cars with wooden benches installed! They didn't let us on the train until 20 min. late. By the way, I got a lot as soon as I got outside. Well, I got steady was going up here. I got in my barracks at 5:15. At 7:00 I turned in Sick call, when ever we get me to the hospital (in bed at 10:25) well, they have treated my throat with a mixture of iodine & glycerine that was very effective. I also took a gargle that chased the most annoying stuff out of my throat. This morning I had had a fever of 101.4 when they first examined me. They just took it again, & it is down still more.

As I said, they are very nice to us here. Of course, they are stuck about some things...
But I feel they are all trying to do the very best for all of us in the most pleasant way.

I am permitted to use
