

UNITED STATES ARMY

Henry - I got 3 letters from Monday you today (I still not letting me what is wrong with your ma) + 8 others, all of which I have already answered with post cards. This is the last sheet of paper, but I'll probably be able to borrow more later. The weather is so bad - a real blizzard - that no one will be going to the P.O. Enclosed are some of the things I want to keep. I got the m.l. from Belle, + thanked her for it. I heard from Henry, got 2 books from Anna. And now I'm going to Ruffin... I have supped. N.P. was an experience yesterday; but I'm not anxious to get ~~more~~ more of the experience. It was not very pleasant. But I made it, and walked extra. Because I wasn't feeling very well, as you can imagine, standing up all day, I wasn't hungry, and served while

2) (The USO would "know") others ate. There was a special glow of satisfaction for me, because my H.P. was permission-ment for something I didn't do, and the guys who meted it out expected me not to be able to make it and were just looking for me not to make it. I was ~~not~~ feeling, to say the least, very low, but I was very pleased.) went to bed at 7. Today the terrible weather gave me a real heck. I've had very little trouble, though my private weather barometer tells me it is getting damp.

The wind has gotten so strong that I had to make 4 tries before I could get out

of the ladder between the mess

3) Hall and the next building.
Now I'll take up the 3 letters I got today in the order in which they were post-marked.
They were ~~dated~~ 1/29/21 + 1/30.

1) Jewish Army. Please write them for me saying that because sin in the Army, too, sin says I won't be able to help them.
Return this letter. Keep it + a copy of your letter.

2) Congress Weekly. Return them away as you get them.

3) Guild Reports, pamphlets that look like I might be interested, accumulated + send whenever you need a joke. (as sin. Asking you will be doing with a ~~try~~

I bag very soon. Also, you enjoyed the picnic cake some of these days.
~~Keep~~ Keep my love with letter on this a Fascist activities. I haven't heard a thing from Sid or Allan, to whom I have sent 3 or 4 a 5 cards. What is Sid's status? Your man: Tell me what is wrong with her. Also, is it desirable for me to go see her when she can see people? The Reds will look into it, if I ask for a pass to go see her, and if she is quite sick, I can get the time off. The Red with the money, we as soon
As your man is completely

5/ rational, I'd suggest you tell her that this is going about the God damned bills. She may not like it when you tell her, but after a little while it will give her some peace of mind. Or maybe you might speak to the hospital people and have them fill her everything has been taken care of for her not to worry. But if you <sup>do</sup> don't give them the impression you can well afford it, because if you do they'll attack us.

6) Safe box: pay by check and make a record for income tax deduction. in second letter: Man & the street-cars may become a major problem. Don't certain he's said he hates them. Don say to her that getting around is so much trouble, but be thankful you don't have it as bad as out as constant as we do! Boy, I don't know what'll happen when the something green again. ~~What~~ Is your throat any better?

I hope it doesn't get bad.
But we know. About Jimmy
Doris: I do agree. He's much 7/ more able than his unworldly predecessors. And he can do more a lot of good, if men will let him (which I doubt.) And I hope he won't trouble you. I don't think he will, but you, being human & having had his experiences will certainly be looking for the worst. I hope it has no effect on the way things go. Speaking of you, is she any better? I hope so. Tell her I asked for Mr. Cole, maybe she can get me a War Dept handbook on pamphlet on "Unarmed Defense," or "Fields." We have of letters as it may, & to take to study it a bit more.

It's a sort of jim jinx, and a very ~~tricky~~ tricky thing for a guy like me to know. Okay. But see.

The typewriter. I don't know what you mean by things I would you to send me. I can't read any at the moment. However, I may be sending a few odd ends back. I may send a partition of the writing kit back so I can hold larger paper in it. Now the last letter:

I can't explain some of the things about the mail. I have asked you very many questions you

weren't answered, indicating 9/ That maybe you haven't received some of my letters.

At the same time, I have found references in your letters to things of which I have had no prior inkling.
I have written you an average of a letter a day a week.
At the same time I got 3 letters today yet I got the papers to which you referred in one last Saturday!
Okay on numbering. By the way, in your next, please include one of the before flints (in an aluminum film can in one of the coffee drawers), ~~wrapping~~ wrapping it in a piece of paper, or in a small envelope or some-10/ thing so it won't get lost. of course, Sir  I want to hear about Chester. I asked Becky to whom I wrote today to convey my say to the injured parties... In what way is Max getting along?

Say "hello" to Al W's b. in - can you please... I hope he doesn't pester you... Your ~~own~~ info. re: Mr. W's bear gave me a good laugh. I sent him a greeting via Belle. I'll write him as soon as I can get a picture card of the camp... And that covers your letter. Please let ~~me~~ ~~me~~

"I know about the zipper boy as much as you can know.
This whole is a hell of a nuisance, and if we isn't forthcoming soon I want to go out & buy me... when you see. I can feel like I read his statement in the LP letter you sent me & I think it was excellent. I think I'd like him to strike a blow for me in the Dick's fight.
I feel a bit futile about it.
I'd like to be there ~~for~~ for it.
Well, honey, my sister says, & the doctor wants me to rest my back at every opportunity, so I'd better close at 7:20 p. m. I'll hear ~~to~~ in.

Love

Harold.
