My Dear Compadre:

Hoping that these few lines find you in the very best of health, I write to you regarding our telephone conversation of October 9, 1994.

I want to begin by thanking you for giving me oral approval to quote from your book, "Frame-Up" for the purpose of inclusion in my tome, "Command Performance: The Laurel, Maryland Mission; The Conspiracy And Attempted Assassination Of Governor George C. Wallace."

Since I know that you have no time for letters I will, hereby, write an agreement that you can sign off on which should be sufficient for the purposes of future publication. A self-addressed stamped envelope is included for your convenience.

*Agreed

10/23/94* I, Harold Weisberg, do hereby authorize Cibacuyo Agueybana to quote from my book "Frame-Up" for inclusion in his tome, "Command Performance: The Laurel, Maryland Mission; The Conspiracy And Attempted Assassination Of Governor George C. Wallace."

I also want to take this time to thank you for putting at my disposal your files on: 1) The Saga Of Robert Byron Watson and 2) The Chicago Conspiracy Versus J.F.K. If I cannot get to your domicile myself I might be able to send a colleague in my stead. I have placed the maximum premium on being able to xerox that which you have in your possession before you send it be archived at the college which you mentioned will be the recipient of your papers when the time arrives for you to ride the lightning. I will be contacting my colleague, David Wemple, tonight and shall inform you, by telephone, of the result of our conversation.

Bueno, compadre, let me not keep you from your assigned duties. Let us sit on the ground and tell sad tales of young and great dead kings!

Thanking you for your time, patience and the very vital oxygen of your assistance, I remain,

Always by your side in spirit,

Cibacuyo

I bid you peace.
