Dear Mr. Alfano,

I've read your letter of the 24th, here today and puzzled a bit about how to respond.

I was not able to figure out how I could without offending you so not wanting to do that I say merely that if you want to solve such crimes from the profundity of factual ignorance, you certainly have that right.

But you know nothing about the crime itself and apparently to be the genius you think you are you do not have to.

The theory of which you are so enamored that you refer to as pure logic is in fact greasy kid stuff.

And if you think it is logic to have a preconception, do nothing to validate it and then base all you believe on that, again it is your right.

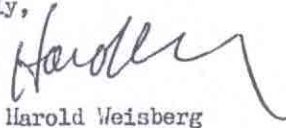

I think I've explained my present situation to you.

So please do not expect me to respond to any more letters.

I just can't take the time, and won't.

I do appreciate your offer of that Sunday dinner but it has not been safe for me to drive out of Frederick since 1977 and I haven't. I'm driven to Baltimore from time to time for medical reason only. I do only a little and necessary driving within Frederick.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
