Dear Jerry,

Thanks for the info in your card. If Lyle Stuart is still alive I doubt he's want to get into anything on the JFK assassination at his age. But I remain convinced that what I'd done in recent years could be successful for a publisher who kept that work in stock.

Marina agreed to be interviewed by Mailer and Schiller for as I recall three days. You are living in a dream world and will hurt your reputation from your utterly baseless opinion "I believe she has not revealed all she knows." She knows nothing about the assassination and can know nothing about it. Oswald was not and could not have been the assassin or to have fired any shots. Come out of the clouds of novels and try to learn what the actual official evidence is. It is not possible to do any responsible theorizing without knowledge of what has been established as fact.

I ^supely miss Sally Belfrage!

She was a wonderful person.

Best,

Harold

I think that Citadel is now owned by Lyle Stuart, at 150 Fifth Avenue, NYC 10011.

If I learn how Mailer's OSWALD did, in hardcovers and trade paperback covers, I'll let you know -- My guess is that it not sell well in either edition. (He did get to meet Marina, who, I believe, has ~~not~~ not revealed all she knows.)

I, of course, pass your regards on to Walter, with whom I am about to do another (our third) book.

We all miss Sally Belfrage.

And, again, thanks for your stuff. JA.
