Agnew's White House Worries

White House, is entering a personal po-litical crisis was indirectly but bluntly conveyed to him by one of President The fact that Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, facing increasing hostility at the Nixon's senior staffers last week.

Agnew aide this question: What can you honestly say the Vice President is the President's program? doing in behalf of the President and The White House staffer asked an program on Capitol Hill. that ought to benefit the President's improving our liaison with Congress and Well, the Agnew man replied, we're poundment of funds, on reduction of federal social services, on attempts to curb congressional power. No, he concluded, Agnew has been no help at all. dent in his great battles - on iming to speak up in behalf of the Presi-Not good enough, snapped back the Nixon aide. Agnew, he pointed out, has been almost totally silent of late, fail-such remarkably outspoken terms without assurance that the President A White House staffer would not are criticize the Vice President in criticize the > proving attitude be made known outside the White House gates — an attitude lethally corrosive to Agnew's still strong base among the Republican staff has seemed eager that this disap-Party faithful. would not object. Moreover, the Nixon at this writing, is a distant second in B. Connally, not yet turned Republican Among those conservative state lead-ers who comprise the backbone of the their eyes. clear early frontrunner for 1976. John Republican Party, Agnew remains the low esteem at the White House. But Agnew's strength at the grass roots derives almost wholly from Mr. Nixon's. Having failed to build up the proliferating message of Agnew's at the grass roots is now imperiled by the past four years, Agnew's prestige party alliances and friendships over seek the 1976 nomination, which explains his refraining from the strident he has made a tentative decision to new himself. His close advisers believe White House has not discouraged Ag-So far, at last, this chill from the > cal base. trademark in order to widen his politirhetoric that he must eliminate as his the party's congressional leaders to make a stand-by offer of Agnew's asstaffer, Agnew is attempting to build links with Republicans on Capitol Hill communications. sistance and to open regular two-way gressional liaison have paid visits to cal alliances. Agnew aides newly assigned to coning Nixon programs but to seek politi-- not really for the purpose of boost-As his aide told the White House Within the last month playboy image as Frank Sinatra's best Tournament in Palm Springs. nace with Sinatra over national televi-sion a month ago at the Bob Hope Golf recurrences of his side-by-side appearbuddy. They have advised him to avoid him to start worrying about his new Beyond this, Agnew supporters want program-his political advisers feel the sional alliances and bury the Sinatra cool wind from the White House will not tone down his rhetoric, build congres-If Agnew can actually do all this - > converted Connally. not conceivably sell the party a newly that a lame duck Nixon will have little make that much difference. They believe mpact on the 1976 nomination and canenough. staff is eager to put out the word that he is not helping Mr. Nixon nearly President. And now the White House clearly is not in close contact with the with the mayors and governors. He litically valuable function of liaison duties, having been stripped of his poposition. He is without government But this view does not comprehend the precariousness of Agnew's present new's popularity among party regulars, he will have faded disastrously, long inside the White House: Agnew is not not to try to crown a successor. before Mr. Nixon decides whether to melt away the thin veneer of Agbeing elected. If that appraisal begins of running for President or capable of a serious or industrious figure worthy can leaders the belief now widely held of all this will carry to state Republi-Agnew's danger is that the sum total

© 1973, Publishers-Hall Syndicate