Dear Gary,

Yesterday I spoke with Dave Wrono. I asked him what he thinks of the Afterword I wrote for NEVER AGAIN! based on what you were kind enough to send me. He regards it as of great importance, as I did in writing it at greater length to have it as a record for history if it is cut.

As, alas, among the incredible cuts in Case Open, the Conclusions were cut only to be followed by 10 blank pages!

I did not tell Wrono what you asked me to keep in confidence but I've thought about it and ask that you rethink keeping it in confidence or phone or write Boswell and ask him if he objects to your quoting him.

I do not need it if there is any controversy between Posner and me, although it would be good to throw in his face. But I think it should get to Conyers, not by mail with a staffer intercepting it and thinking, well, that is past, we won't bother the busy boss with it. I can get it <sup>N</sup>had-delivered to him,

Just a simple statement referring to the hearing transcript and what Posner did and said and with what Boswell said.

I'd like, of course, to have that for the historical record, too.

Conyers might consider entering it in the Congressional Record and could be asked to do that.

The innumerable and unnecessary errors, mostly typographical, remain in Case Open, as I told you I feared. But I've just finished reading it and it remains a powerful indictment, an exposure of an indecent man lying his way to fame and fortune over such a tragedy. and it is a powerful indictment of the media.

Best,

Harold
