Dec. 19, 1967.

Mr. Weisberg:

I have been studying the WC for 1½ years, I find it a fairy tale. I read all your books on the Kennedy assination & also back to Judgment. I tried to figure out every angle & all that would come up was an anti Castro right wing plot but I guess my woman's intuition just told me to go in the opposite direction. The other day I found what I was looking for. On page 34 of Life dated Sept. 29, 1967, a write-up of Castro hoods Carlos Marcello, the boss in New Orleans, as free & big apparently as ever since his deportation trial at the time of Pres. Kennedy's death.

-2-

Witness in your book Oswald in New Orleans p. 140 - Dean Andrews handled Marcello's deportation defense and Andrews knew Ferrie

p. 321 - David Ferrie was the Mafia's boss's lawyers investigator. Ferrie being around the trial at the time of Pres. K. death.

Now Life magazine

is trying to bring in
Gov. McKeithen and D.A.
Jim Garrison into the Cosa Nostra activities.
Take it from there.

Also on P. 386, the testimony of Allan Dale, a man told him of hearing about a contract on Kennedy offered to the Mafia but the Minutemen picked it up.
Get a copy of Esquire, Aug. 1967 & read the
chilling story of Ivan Vegvoo. He was questioned by the FBI immediately

after the Pres. death.
He lives in Upper Darby, right outside of Philadelphia at the 69th stop of the Frankford elevated.
Keep up the good work —
