ASSASSINATION SYMPOSIUM ON JOHN F. KENNEDY

November 22, 1993, marks the end of the Third Decade of questions about the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the numerous mysteries that continue to elude researchers, journalists, historians and popular writers. Since its inception in 1991, the Assassination Symposium on Kennedy (ASK) has provided an opportunity and a platform for concerned citizens and researchers from across the U.S. and around the world to lay out their individual pieces of the puzzle. ASK hopes to be a vehicle to allow those pieces to come together in a cogent manner that can facilitate finding truth as well as spotlighting needed changes in government policy and procedures. On the 30th Anniversary of this international tragedy, more people than ever before will convene at Dallas' Hyatt Regency Hotel at Reunion Square, just blocks from Dealey Plaza for the 1993 Assassination Symposium on Kennedy. They will be privy to four days of all new panel discussions, eyewitness testimony, first-hand accounts and other presentations. The ASK Mart will once again feature a wide variety of displays and merchandise, including many of the newest books in the field, some of which can be autographed on the spot by the author. ASK registrants will also be able to participate in other special events related to assassination research and the anniversary observation of the tragedy. You will want to be there.

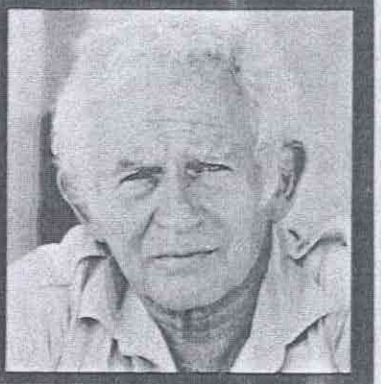
1993 KEYNOTE



ASK'93 is proud to have Pulitzer Prize-winning author Norman Mailer as our Keynote Speaker.

Mr. Mailer is in the process of completing a new book about Lee Harvey Oswald, and is considered to be not only one of the great American writers of the 20th Century, but also one of the most astute contemporary participant/observers of the social, cultural and political events of the past three decades. He was also a co-founder of The Village Voice.

The JFK Assassination Information Center, founded in 1989, is proud to co-sponsor ASK. The Center is a repository of information and services for researchers, writers, journalists, producers, students and the general public. Large displays and a theater area feature government documents, films, newsreels, audio and video tapes, artifacts, souvenirs, books and publications. The AIC will dedicate its new location in the Katy Building near Dealey Plaza on Monday, November 22.

The Texas Observer, our other co-sponsor, is a 38-year old bi-weekly journal of Texas politics and culture with a world-wide reputation for tough investigative reporting, strong ethical sensibilities and a long history of service to the citizenry of Texas and the United States.

'93 Program & Panelists

As this bulletin goes to print, our staff is busily trying to nail down more details of our program and presenters. You will note we have adjusted the program schedule in light of current events and issues; modifications will likely continue to some degree or another right up to the time of the event.

In response to feedback from participants in ASK '92, we have scheduled longer program segments and, in the vast majority of time slots, only one event is happening at a time.

An update bulletin in October containing panelist and presenter names and further program details will be mailed to ASK '93 registrants and our mailing list.

1993 FEES

The registration fee permits participation in all ASK events listed in the 1993 schedule except the optional tour and women's luncheon.

Postmark by	Fee
September 28	$125
October 27	$150
After October 27	$175
Walk-up Registration	$175

After November 10, do not mail registration, only fax or telephone credit card registrations accepted. Or bring form and payment to the Symposium. No refunds

See the back of this brochure for hotel, travel, and bus tour information.

ASK Mart & Program Book Ads

The ASK Mart, a hub of past Symposia, is an area to display and sell books, videos, memorabilia and other assassination-related information or merchandise. The Mart will open Friday at noon and close Sunday at 10:30 pm. Tables are available only to paid registrants. Fees are: $150 per 6-foot table or $250 for a double-sized space. (Individuals may reserve a half table for $85.)

Display advertising is available in the ASK Program Book; the 30th Anniversary edition will be in a larger format (8.5x11"). Ad rates are $100 for a 1/2 page; $175 for a full; $225 for the inside back or front covers; and $275 for the outside back (2-color included).

If you are interested in a table or program ad, call 512/467-7979. After October 15, add $50 to these prices.

"I wish to commend all those involved in doing an overall terrific and tremendous job in putting these two JFK Symposia together. . . . a most memorable and worthwhile program."

provide ASK Registrants an opportunity to network with researchers, buy or sell memorabilia, publicize products, or just to have a space for meetings. Run a 20-word Classified Ad in the ASK Commemorative Program Book for $1.00. Submit your ad on the back of your registration form or a separate sheet. Additional words are .50 each. Non-registrants may submit a classified ad at a rate of .50/word (20 word minimum).

WOMEN REGISTRANTS

are invited to meet together at a special luncheon during Friday's noon break. Join ASK Consultant Mary Ferrell in this opportunity to recognize the contributions of the often overlooked female researchers and assassination theory activists. This group may be small, but much interest has been expressed in having this time to network with each other and learn more about our individual work.

The lunch will cost $30 and reservations need to be made in advance on the form below. We have invited lots of interesting women to come; we'll let you know more in coming bulletins.

Complete entire form. Use separate sheet for multiple registrations.
